LUIGI BAUDANA
BAROLO
CERRETTA 2015

“Ripe and juicy, displaying macerated cherry and plum flavors, complemented by menthol and rosemary notes. A line of mineral underscores all the elements, revealing a dense matrix of fine tannins on the finish.”

BAUDANA 2015

“The Luigi Baudana 2015 Barolo Baudana, with fruit from Serralunga d’Alba, is a wine with a very promising aging future ahead. Starting with the firmness of its core and its tightly knit fabric, this wine offers all the main criteria for graceful cellaring. You get bright primary fruit, along with crisp acidity and rock-solid structure. You won’t miss those characteristic Serralunga d’Alba tannins.”

M. Larner, Wine Advocate

LUIGI BAUDANA
SERRALUNGA 2015

“The 2015 Barolo del Comune di Serralunga d’Alba is a blend of mostly younger vine fruit from Cerretta and Baudana. Deep and expressive in the glass, the 2015 is a fabulous wine in its peer group. [...] The combination of beguiling aromatics, supple fruit and good supporting structure makes for a compelling, delicious Barolo.”
